ABOUT

Prince William County is home to over 40,000 military veterans many of whom are still actively engaged in the workforce. There are approximately 10,144 employers in the County that cannot find employees to fill open positions. The military/veteran population is an ideal target for these jobs.

This event sponsored by Prince William County Department of Economic Development and Tourism (PWCEDT), in partnership with the MCB Quantico, will assist local veterans, military spouses, and transitioning service members to connect to employment opportunities in the County.
